

the intrastate certificate shall have been renewed, reissued, or reinstated or the restrictions removed within said one hundred and eighty-day period. Such certificates of registration shall be subject to suspension or termination by the Commission in accordance with the provisions of this Act governing the suspension and termination of certificates of public convenience and necessity issued by the Commission.

“(B) All rights to engage in operations in interstate and foreign commerce under the provisions of the second proviso of paragraph (1) of this subsection, as in effect immediately before the date of the enactment of this paragraph, shall cease and terminate, but any carrier lawfully engaged in interstate and foreign operations on the date of the enactment of this paragraph or any carrier who would have been so lawfully engaged in such operations but for the pendency of litigation to determine the validity of such person's intrastate operations to the extent such litigation is resolved in favor of such person, pursuant to such provisions, may continue such operations for 120 days after such date and, if an appropriate application for a certificate of registration is filed within such period, such operations may be continued pending the determination of such application. The Commission shall prescribe the form of such application, the information and documents to be furnished, the manner of filing, and the persons to whom or the manner of giving notice to interested persons of such filings. Issues arising in the determination of such applications shall be determined in the most expeditious manner and, so far as practicable and legally permissible, without formal hearings or other proceedings. A notice of intent to engage in interstate and foreign operations accompanied by certified copies of effective, lawfully issued or acquired State certificates filed with the Commission as evidence of authority to operate in interstate or foreign commerce under the provisions of the second proviso of paragraph (1) of this subsection, as in effect immediately before the date of the enactment of this paragraph, shall be conclusive proof that the applicant is lawfully engaged in interstate and foreign operations and the scope thereof.”
